Bios and booking details

Short bio

for listings and flyers

DJ KY (Kyler Pulley) is a Reno DJ and MC who has been spinning since 2015. He plays weddings, private parties and corporate events across Reno and Lake Tahoe, and hosts the monthly Open Decks night at Shims Tavern downtown.

Medium bio

for event pages and vendor lists

DJ KY is Kyler Pulley, a DJ and MC based in Reno. He started spinning in 2015 and brought it with him from San Diego to Northern Nevada, where he now covers weddings from the ceremony through the last dance, along with private parties, anniversaries and corporate nights across Reno and Lake Tahoe. After dark he plays house, hip-hop, trap and drum and bass around downtown Reno, and he hosts the monthly Open Decks at Shims Tavern, where new and seasoned DJs get a crowd and a 30-minute set. One couple called him "extremely professional, responsive and helpful."

Long bio

for press and planners

DJ KY is the working name of Kyler Pulley, a Reno DJ and MC who has been behind the decks since 2015. He moved from San Diego to Northern Nevada and plays open format, from ceremony music to downtown bar sets.

On the event side, he handles weddings start to finish (ceremony music, cocktail hour, the reception and the mic), plus birthdays, anniversaries and company parties. One couple called him professional, responsive and flexible. A party host said he had the dance floor packed all night.

On the club side, he's a regular in downtown Reno. Recent bills include the Reno Zombie Crawl at Ole Bridge Pub, a silent disco in Wingfield Park for the RageOnWestStreet after party, Teatronica's all-night back-to-back at The Studio and Brunch Beats at El Adobe. He also hosts the monthly Open Decks at Shims Tavern, an open sign-up night that gives local DJs, first-timers included, a room and a crowd to play for.
